

KLove radio serves my family as residents of this fine country
If KLove radio were to be replaced by another radio station, it would be very bad for this city, county, states, and country.
My family and I believe that the service that they provide is very crucial for the public interest.